

The Declaration of Peaceful Intent.

I declare my 100% peaceful intent.

I confirm that all our Sikh religious teachings, which are from Sri Guru Granth Sahib, are a book in verse of peace and love of humankind.

We Sikhs have an unconditional commitment to peace on earth and mutual respect and regard of fellow human beings. Our holy book regards all humankind as one family and the idea of insulting, degrading, killing, or even converting a fellow human, is not part of the Sikh religion.

In no part of Sikh teachings are there recommendations to commit violence. If there were, then I would renounce such teachings.

DECLARATION OF PEACEFUL INTENT BY A SIKH

I believe in One God and the teachings of the Ten Gurus and the holy book, which is from Sri Guru Granth Sahib, regarded as the "living" Guru (or the ultimate spiritual guide).

I believe in treating all humankind with compassion and respect irrespective of colour, creed, religion, race and gender. And I believe in the equality of man and woman.

I further believe in honest and peaceful living, sharing my wealth with the needy and going out of my way to help the persecuted.

We Sikhs are fiercely loyal to the country of our domicile.
